TriCo Bancshares and FNB Bancorp Announce Shareholder and FDIC Approval of Merger

CHICO, CA & SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, CA - TriCo Bancshares (“TriCo”) (NASDAQ: TCBK) and FNB Bancorp (“FNB”) (NASDAQ: FNBG) today announced that each company has received the requisite shareholder approval for the merger of FNB with and into TriCo (“Merger”) that was announced on December 11, 2017.

In addition, TriCo and FNB announced the receipt of regulatory approval from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation regarding the merger of First National Bank of Northern California with and into Tri Counties Bank, the wholly owned subsidiaries of FNB and TriCo, respectively. The California Department of Business Oversight had previously approved the transaction. The transaction remains subject to receipt of regulatory approval from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and satisfaction of customary closing conditions, and is expected to close in the third quarter of 2018.

Upon closing of the Merger, the banking subsidiaries of each will also merge, with Tri Counties Bank as the surviving entity.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information

Certain statements contained in this press release which are not statements of historical fact constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements include, but are not limited to, certain plans, expectations, goals, projections and benefits relating to the transaction between TriCo and FNB, which are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties. Words such as "believes," "anticipates," "likely," "expected," "estimated," "intends" and other similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. Please refer to each of TriCo's and FNB's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017, as well as their other filings with the SEC, for a more detailed discussion of risks, uncertainties and factors that could cause actual results to differ from those discussed in the forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements are not historical facts but instead express only management's beliefs regarding future results or events, many of which, by their nature, are inherently uncertain and outside of the management's control. It is possible that actual results and outcomes may differ, possibly materially, from the anticipated results or outcomes indicated in these forward-looking statements. In addition to factors previously disclosed in reports filed by TriCo and FNB with the SEC, risks and uncertainties for TriCo, FNB and the combined company include, but are not limited to: the possibility that any of the anticipated benefits of the proposed merger will not be realized or will not be realized within the expected time period; the risk that integration of FNB's operations with those of TriCo will be materially delayed or will be more costly or difficult than expected; the inability to close the merger in a timely manner; diversion of management's attention from ongoing business operations and opportunities; the failure to satisfy other conditions to complete the merger, including receipt of required regulatory and other approvals; the failure of the proposed merger to close for any other reason; the challenges of integrating and retaining key employees; the effect of the announcement of the merger on TriCo's, FNB's or the combined company's respective customer relationships and operating results; the possibility that the merger may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events; and general competitive, economic, political and market conditions and fluctuations. All forward-looking statements included in this filing are made as of the date hereof and are based on information available at the time of the filing. Except as required by law, neither TriCo nor FNB assumes any obligation to update any forward- looking statement.
