

FACTSWhat Does Tri Counties Bank Do with Your Personal Information?

Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: • Social Security number and payment history • Transaction or loss history and account transactions • Overdraft history and wire transfer instructions When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.
How?	All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Tri Counties Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Tri Counties Bank share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes – such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus.	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes – to offer our products and services to you.	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies	No	We DON'T share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your transactions and experiences.	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness.	No	We DON'T share
For non-affiliates to market to you	No	We DON'T share

Questions?Call 1-800-922-8742 or visit www.tcbk.com

Who we are
Who is providing this notice?	Tri Counties Bank
What we do
How does Tri Counties Bank protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
How does Tri Counties Bank collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you: • Open an account or pay your bills • Apply for a loan or give us your contact information • Make a wire transfer We also collect your personal information from others such as credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only: • Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness • Affiliates from using your information to market to you • Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more information about your rights under state law.
Definitions
Affiliates	Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. • Tri Counties Bank does share with our affiliates.
Non-affiliates	Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. • Tri Counties Bank does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you.
Joint marketing	A formal agreement between non-affiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. • Tri Counties Bank doesn't jointly market.
Other Important Information
California Residents	Under California law, we will not share information we collect about you with companies outside of Tri Counties Bank, unless the law allows. For example, we may share information with your consent to service accounts, or to provide benefits you are entitled to. We will limit this sharing to the extent required by California law. For more information, please review our California Consumer Privacy Act Policy at www.tcbk.com/ccpa-policy