RULES OF CONDUCT

Welcome to TriCo Bancshares Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Only shareholders of record on April 2, 2025, or their duly authorized proxy holders may attend or address the meeting. In fairness to all participants and in the interest of an orderly and constructive meeting, we ask that you abide by the following Rules of Conduct.

1. Authority to conduct the meeting. The Chairman has the authority to conduct the meeting and rule on any questions or procedural matters that may arise. Any action taken by the Chair of the meeting will be final and binding on all persons. The Chairman, President & CEO will serve as chair of the meeting.

- The polls will be opened and will remain open until the official business of the meeting has been completed. If any item of the official business of the meeting is not properly presented at the meeting, votes on that item will not be counted.

4. Questions.

- Shareholders will have the opportunity to submit questions during the meeting, commencing around 10:40 a.m. Please provide your name and organization (if any), and, if applicable, the specific proposal to which your question relates. In order to facilitate responses and discussion, all questions should be succinct and limited to one topic.
- During the Question & Answer session, we will answer questions pertinent to meeting matters as they come in and address those asked in advance, as time permits. Questions will be directed to the management team in the form they were submitted, except for the reasons provided below.

- Any questions pertinent to meeting matters that cannot be answered during the meeting due to time constraints will be posted online and answered on our investor relations page at <https://www.tcbk.com/investor-relations> as soon as practicable following the meeting and will remain available for one week after posting.
- To ensure that as many shareholders as possible are able to ask questions during the meeting, each shareholder will be permitted no more than two questions.
- Questions from multiple shareholders on the same topic or that are otherwise related may be grouped, summarized, and answered together.
- The Question and Answer session will not exceed 15 minutes.

6. Issues during the meeting.
